Raw & Cooked Dog Meats

We have just set up a line of raw and cooked dog meats which are locally prepared and cooked. They come in pre-frozen packages which will keep for up to 1 year and are priced from £2.75 to £3.35 per 200g pack.

The feeds are made using Grade A 100% raw meats and can be added to dried foods to provide extra protein and flavor to your dog's diet.

To get you started, we have a special introductory offer of 2 packs for £5 for your first purchase.

Protect Your Plants

Although the outlook for November doesn't look too bad, it is probably a good idea to ensure that your non-hardy plants are protected from the odd early morning frost.

Bring them into your glass house or conservatory now to protect them.

Trim off any dead leaves or growth and water just once. Do not water again until the soil is noticeably dry (this may not happen at all throughout the winter) then, when the risk of frosts has gone, place them back outside.

Fresh Meats

You may remember that we recently changed our main fresh meat supplier. Many thanks to those who have provided feedback—it seems that everyone loves the new extended range. As a result of your comments we have yet again extended the shelf area and range of meats available. If there is anything you'd like to see in the shop on a regular basis have a chat with a member of staff and we'll see what can be done.

Bird Seed (Again)

Although the price of bird seed has increased a little (not as much as we had feared), we are still well stocked for the winter.

By feeding birds throughout the winter, you can establish feeding patterns that will continue all through the seasons, bringing many varieties to your garden.

We also stock a number of different feed dispensers so that you can control which types of birds are most attracted.

Check Your Piggy Bank

There's not much that's exciting about 2p coins. They're oversized, can't be used to buy much and are unremarkable in design or shape.

However, when they were first minted and up to 1982, they were inscribed 'NEW PENCE' but after 1982 that inscription was changed to read 'TWO PENCE' - except for a few that is.

Due to a production error, a number continued to be printed 'NEW PENCE', so if you have a 2p coin dated 1983 or later with the 'NEW PENCE' inscription, it could be worth hundreds or even thousands of pounds.

We've streamlined our normal website: forestfarmshop.com and built one for the Garden Centre at forestroadgardencentre.com. Both have versions for mobile phones.

PAYPAL Email Threat

If you receive an email that appears to be from PAYPAL and has a Word document attachment DO NOT OPEN IT.

The scammers are at work again and this time have created an email that even has what appears to be a PAYPAL 'From' address. It asks you to confirm some of your personal details using the attached form, but the form itself contains malicious code that could 'steal' your PAYPAL login and password details.

As with all emails, NEVER open an attachment that comes from someone you do not recognise, or from a name that is familiar to you and asks you to confirm personal details via an attachment. Most reputable financial organisations have a help line that you can ring to check that emails are authentic.
